Industrial Exposure is necessary to make students aware of the practical approach of the devices and processes they are learning

Nothing

Separate Lab course is needed so students will get more practical exposure

The courses taught are really out-dated and not at all overlaps with the growing industry requirements. While skills are needed at the industry level but the faculty is busy in collecting assignments from the students rather than teaching relevant personality traits and required knowledge about skillsets.

ORIENTATION OF NEW FACULTIES REGARDING NBA NAAC WORK SHOULD BE DONE

Respected Sir/Madam , I want to convey my problem through this feedback form. I have taken subjects like EDC /LIC & BEE till date and for these subjects Mr Sadanand Sir is allotted as Lab Assistant. I am sorry to say but he has never ever help me in any of the lab related work. Works like searching the components , giving the components to students , putting back all the components to its respective boxed , dusting the kits before using it , checking the kits whether it is in working condition or not has been done by me . During my practical sessions he never stays in the lab (EDC Lab) . I literally had to beg to him to do experiment related work which he never did.
